Headline:
Mostly cloudy, with some patchy light rain. Feeling warm.

Today:
Any overnight fog quickly clears, though turning increasingly cloudy through the day. Sunny spells where breaks in the cloud allow, brighter in the east of the country. Patchy light rain occasionally falling, primarily in western areas. Breezy, but feeling warm. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy conditions with patchy light rain continuing this evening and overnight, but a few clear spell too. Driest in the east. Overnight low cloud and fog patches developing. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Thursday:
Generally rather cloudy, misty and damp in western and southern areas, but some brightness developing north and east of high ground. Feeling warm. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Cloudy on Friday, with further patchy light rain. Brighter on Saturday and Sunday, warm for most. A risk of coastal fog and inland morning low cloud, at least at first.
